THE HOUSE BLEND

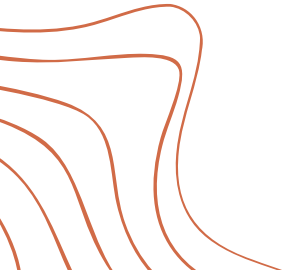

Our House Blend is where curiosity meets craft, and just a bit of rebellion. We mix beans from unexpected origins, creating bold yet balanced profiles that keep you guessing. Not your usual cup. But once you've had it, you'll come back for the surprise.

COLOMBIAN SUPREMO

Grown high in Colombia's mountains, these beans take their time and it shows. Supremo means bigger beans and deeper flavor: smooth at first, then a lift of citrus, a note of dark chocolate, maybe even almond if you're paying attention. It's confident, clean, and quietly complex. Like your favorite kind of company.

ETHIOPIAN YIRGACHEFFE

This one's all elegance. Light, floral, and a little citrusy, Yirgacheffe doesn't need to shout. It's coffee with history in every sip, soft and sweet like ripe stone fruit. If you like your brews subtle, layered, and quietly unforgettable, start here.
